STAGES ONE AND TWO...

The Platinum Programme Stage 1 has now had over 400 graduates. This programme was specifically designed to give property managers the intrinsic skills to face challenges with confidence. Topics include- fundamentals of contract law, choosing the tenant, tenancy agreements, tenants named or numbered, s 136 and serving notices, notices to terminate, rent in advance, increases, & statements, tenancy bonds, inspections and visits, selling the rental, mitigation of loss, tenants rights, compensation and exemplary damages, abandoned goods, claiming costs / expenses, terminating tenancies, appeals & rehearing's and there is time at the end of the day to discuss your own current cases that you require Scotney's advice on.

The Platinum Programme Stage 2 has now been held in every major region of New Zealand with close to 300 graduates. It covers a different group of topics to stage I, and may be completed prior to Stage I if preferred- there are no prerequisites for this part of the overall course. This programme is centered around the following topics: tenancy tribunal, mediation, adjudication, applying for termination, documents as evidence, drafting applications and presenting to the tenancy tribunal, methamphetamine labs, insurance as part of risk management, dealing with rent arrears, inspections and visits, evictions, cross leasing issues, question and answer session.

TESTIMONIALS
